SUNDAY, October 16, 1887.

Next week is Fair week.

Wouldn't it be better to do your shopping this week before the crowds come in?

Read carefully what we have to say below. This is an advertisement, but it will pay you to read it and investigate! We shall be mutually benefited!!!

Our Silk Department

Invites your attention. Our stock is complete, and we venture the assertion that whatever may be your wants in this line we can supply them. We could fill this column with descriptions and prices, but we will not tax your patience; so shall only mention a few:

BLACK GROS-GRAIN SILK as low as 75c.

COLORED GROS-GRAIN, latest shades, $1.00;

BLACK SATIN RHADIMIDES from 90c. to $1.00;

COLORED SUEHHS, all latest shades, only 90c.;

BLACK SUEHHS at 95c.

Everything in this department fresh—many goods just received yesterday.

DRESS-GOODS DEPARTMENT.

We could "talk you blind," to use a very popular "Americanism," when you start us on our "pet" department. It contains such beauties—all the cream of the northern markets and the very latest novelties—that we may well be excused for being enthused on the subject.

ATLANTIC 64 CASHMERE at 27½c.—latest shades;

ALL-WOOL PLANNEL SUITINGS at 85c.—fashionable shades;

BLACK SEASTOPOL CLOTH at 85c.—something nice!

8-inch ALMA CLOTH at 75c.—see to them,

Everything in TRIMMINGS at our usual popular prices.

How about VELVETS? We are there every time! You can come to the Great Main-Street Bazaar feeling assured if it is VELVETS you want you will have to go no further.

BLANKETS.

We have marked down the THISTLE SILVER-GRAY BLANKETS again. Shall we give you the figures? Prepare for a shock: see for it a $2 pair of blankets. Didn't we tell you it would pay you to read this?

Pale Wool large-size GRAY BLANKETS at 75c, $1.00, and $1 per pair.

A few pair of those 4-pound WHITE BLANKETS, guaranteed all wool, 100%. They are very slightly soiled. Get a pair for $2.50.

BLANKETS.

The English Plaid and Check Coats, with and without satinined, hooks, at $2.50 and $1, are marked at the price.

The Light-Tan English Kersey Coats (of saucy plainer) at $5, with the lap seams at $7.50, and braided at $10, were formerly high-priced bazaars, which we are putting in the reach of all.

Just received, 100 latest New York styles in Long and Short Wraps—Plush, Silk, Velvet, Cloth, and Novelty.

WINDOW-SHADES.

What other house in this part of the country buys Window-Shades by the hundred dozen? Our last contract (just received) was for 500 dozen. Note our price:

The usual size, 36 to 40 inches wide, for a good Merino Shirt; a much heavier weight, though, at 75c. a suit-pants.

The Camel-Hair Underwear—striped, $1.75 a suit; plain, $2.25 a suit. Where else will such prices buy them?

Men's Wool Red Shirts at 50c.

Men's All-Wool Medicated Red at $1.75 a suit.

Men's All-Wool White Shirts (that are guaranteed as such) at $1 each.

Men's Seamed All-Wool White or Red Medicated Shirt and Pants at $2.50 a suit.

These few items show but one pulse-beat of the new life that is surging through the department, for we lay at bottom figures and give customers every advantage arising from our large purchases at first hands.

What is the Dress Goods and Silk

Goods that are so bewildering in their extensiveness? Where is there in this town such another place to see Dress Goods? We pick and pick from every famous importer's stock.

The right things are always here and at a right price.

A few items picked out here and there are:

An Every-Thread Wool Tricot a yard and a half-wide—so wide, in fact, that 6½ yards make a costume—just 75c. a yard. Where else is such a quality for less than one dollar?

Don't you like a big assortment of shades to select from? Well, there are sixteen of these. As much can be said of our 40-inch Imported French Serge at 50c.; when made up make the appearance of costing double the price.

A complete All-Wool Costumes for $1.50.

All-Wool Homespun, so wide that 6½ yards make a dress, at 25c. a yard.

The Persian Figured Dress Goods are now 7½c. a yard.

What else have we not? Take a peep for yourself, and it will be hard to tell.

EVENING SILKS AND DRAPE-

BIES.

Evening Shades Striped Moires at

55c.; Evening Shades Floriated Sul-lutes at 88c.; Evening Shades Striped Moire Sultane, alternating stripes of moire and highly-colored flowered designs, at $1; Evening

Shades Plushes at $1; Polka-Dot

Draper Nets, 1½ yards wide, at 50c.

SPECIAL SALE STRIPED SILK

Velvets ranging in price from $1 to $2 a yard, choice for 75c. a yard.

601 and 603 Broad street.

THIS WEEK MARKS THE REAL BEGINNING OF THE FALL SEASON. POSSIBLY NEVER AGAIN THIS SEASON WILL THE ASSORTMENTS BE SO COMPLETE. THE OLD, OLD CUSTOMERS WHO HAVE BEEN GETTING OUR SOLID GOODS FOR YEARS, AND NEW CUSTOMERS FINDING US OUT, KEEP THE OLD RELIABLE STORE LIVELY. THE CONSTANTLY GROWING BUSINESS HAS NO NOTION OF STOPPING ITS INCREASE, FOR THE PEOPLE FIND IT'S THE SAME OLD STORY AS EVER—HONEST AND SUBSTANTIAL GOODS, A DISPOSITION TO SERVE THEM BETTER AND BETTER EVERY SEASON—THE MORE OF THEM THAT COME—AND THE LARGEST SORT OF A MONEY'S WORTH, NO MATTER WHAT KIND OF GOODS THEY COME FOR. WE MEAN IT SHALL BE ALWAYS SO.

THE NEW FALL AND WINTER JACKETS AND COATS.

May one woman in ten have seen them. When the cool weather sets in thoroughly we shall expect the other nine feathers. Such Jackets and Coats are worth looking at if only for the ideas they give. There is no need to think you can make them up cheap.

Tis an impossibility. Ours are all tailor-made and silk-sewed. They are Beavers, Twills, Bonnets, Muttons, English Plaids, Muttons, English Checks, Keroses, English Stripes, Dungarees, Thimbles.

Ladies' Merino Shirts at 25c.

Ladies' Merino Vests, with the desirable silk stitching and binding, at 18c.

Ladies' Three-Quarter Wool Vests and Pants at $1.50 a suit.

Ladies' All-Wool Vest and Pants (wind you, every fibre is wool) at $2 a suit.

The Light-Tan English Kersey Coats (of saucy plainer) at $5, with the lap seams at $7.50, and braided at $10, were formerly high-priced bazaars, which we are putting in the reach of all.

Just received, 100 latest New York styles in Long and Short Wraps—Plush, Silk, Velvet, Cloth, and Novelty.
